Joint State/ICA message.

Part 1. There follows by separate telegram a draft Note to supplement diplomatic exchange Notes of April 4.

Since the April 4 exchange does not constitute an agreement it is considered advisable conclude further exchange Notes to provide formal agreement covering this assistance and to establish basis whereby ICA may enter into subsidiary operational project agreements in accordance with its regular procedures.

Project agreements to obligate FY 1956 funds for this purpose ($5 million of FY 56 funds have been allotted for this assistance) must of course be concluded by June 30, 1956. The conclusion of proposed exchange Notes will enable ICA to follow its normal procedures in making operational arrangements with regard this assistance. (Assume Embassy and USOM/L are agreed on division of funds by project, form of project agreements and parties to such agreements).

Dist. Desired (Offices Only)

No change should be made in draft Note without approval Department and ICA/W. If Embassy perceives no objections, prepare Note. However, do not present it until advised by Department that Secretary's approval signature such Note obtained in accordance Circular regarding negotiation agreements. Authority conclude proposed exchange Notes and project agreements above referred extends through June 30, 1956.

Upon conclusion proposed exchange Notes Embassy requested, in accordance ~~with~~ FSM 226, transmit ~~to~~ Department certified copy Embassy's Note and signed original ~~of~~ Note of PM and FONMIN. Documents to be sent ~~to~~ Department in accordance this paragraph should be transmitted in Department State series, marked attention Assistant Legal Adviser Treaty Affairs.

Part II. It should be noted that when development assistance is to be furnished by ICA under Title II of Mutual Security Act 1954, as amended - as distinguished from technical assistance under Title III - it is generally desirable ~~that~~ such assistance be furnished pursuant to basic Development Assistance Agreement. It is felt that, in order provide basis for any future development assistance to Libya, it would be advisable conclude such basic agreement with Libya. If Embassy and USOM perceive no objection it is planned forward ~~to~~ Embassy in near future proposed basic development assistance agreement to be negotiated with Libya.
